

You Will Need an Oil Stove

When warm days and the kitchen fire make cooking a burden—then is the time to try a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove.

Marvelous how this stove does away with kitchen discomforts—how cool it keeps the room in comparison with conditions when the coal fire was burning. The quick concentrated heat of the goes directly to boil the kettle or bake the bread, and none is diffused about the room to overheat it. Thus using the "New Perfection" is real kitchen comfort. Made in three sizes and fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp Just such a lamp as everyone wants—handsome enough for the parlor; strong enough for the kitchen, camp or cottage; bright enough for every occasion. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

BOYS FIGHT WITH RAIS.

Locked in a Penn street moving-picture theater in Reading, Pa., Wednesday night, 12-year-old Edward Fredericks was attacked by rats and had the most thrilling experience of his career. Visiting the theater early in the evening, young Fredericks secured a corner seat, where he fell asleep. At 11 o'clock the theater was closed, the sleeping boy not being observed. Toward morning Fredericks was awakened by a pulling at his foot, and soon realized that rats by the hundreds were after him. The rats had already been chewed out of his shoes and the rats' teeth had lacerated his feet. He started to fight the rodents off, and, according to his story, the fight lasted several hours, during which his cries and the squealing of the rats could be heard several doors away, but nobody appeared to rescue him. At 5 o'clock yesterday morning he pounded against the door, and finally a passerby heard him and helped him crawl over the top of a moving-picture machine box and to liberty.

ROBBED OF HIS TEETH.

T. C. Roberts of Omaha, a Northwestern Railroad brakeman, on Wednesday had eight of his teeth filled with gold. On that night a gang of tramps captured Roberts and pulled all his valuable teeth for the gold in them. While on his run Wednesday night, Roberts discovered a gang of tramps stealing a ride. He attempted to force them from the train and his new teeth showed brightly in the lantern's light. The tramps captured the brakeman, and while a number jumped on him, others relieved him of the shining teeth, using a pair of pliers in the doing work. The hobos jumped from the train as it was entering the railroad yards at the outskirts of Omaha and took Roberts' teeth with them.

Cornell, Reading, Pa., Aug. 27, 1906." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.
